Primary Election August 18th, 1914

NELS JOHNSON.

Oakland, Neb., Man Out for State Senator.

Nels Johnson, of Oakland, Neb., republican candidate for state senator for this district in the primaries against Senator Shumway of Wakefield, was a caller here Tuesday while making an auto tour of this end of the Sixth district. Mr. Johnson is a man of pleasing appearance and has a public record at his home that he might well be proud of. Since leaving the farm six years ago he has been a member of the town council for five years, a member of the board of education six years, on the county board three years, and member of the state legislature one term—a pretty good pedigree as a public servant.

In commenting on his candidacy the Lyons Mirror says:

"Nels Johnson of Oakland has filed for state senator. He represented Bart county in the state legislature and did so well there that his friends want to send him back again as senator. He would make a good one—remember him at the primary election August 18th."

The Bart County Herald says: "Hon Nels Johnson, of Oakland, candidate for state senator on the republican ticket came over Friday and spent the day in Tekamah. Mr. Johnson said that from now on he will make an active canvass, that he has been somewhat handicapped by his own people who want him to remain on the county board of supervisors from the Oakland district. There is no question about Mr. Johnson's ability or integrity, he has had legislative experience as member of the House where he was an active member and made a very good record. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Shumway of Wakefield, are the only candidates for that office, neither the democrats or progressives have a candidate, the chances are that Mr. Johnson's name will be written in on their ballot giving him a strong support in this county where he is so well and favorably known."

MARGARET A. MURPHY

Democratic Candidate for re-election county superintendent of Dakota County subject to the will of the voters at the primary August 18, 1914. Your vote and support is respectfully solicited.

Sioux City Journal, 9th. An automobile stolen from W. Gordon, of South Sioux City, was found yesterday in a garage. Gordon left the car standing at Fifth and Nebraska streets. When he returned from the oilers the machine was missing. Thomas Crosby, of Goodwin, Neb, left his automobile standing one mile south of the Armour Packing house on the bluff road yesterday. When he returned the machine had been stripped of everything but its headlights. Tires and other accessories comprised the loot. Peter George, purporting to be a deacon in a Syrian church, whose object was the raising of money for the support of a widow and orphan's home, was arrested in South Sioux City yesterday by Chief of Police A. L. Mathwig and delivered to the Sioux City police. The widow and orphan's home was branded by the police as a myth and George was said to be a swindler. George was arrested several days ago for trying to lead two farmers to a Nebraska town where he said easy money could be won in a card game.

Sioux City Journal, 8: Mrs F. J. Duncan, of Dakota City, entertained Thursday for Miss Dorothy Berry, whose marriage to George E. Maynard will take place in September. On his way to his old home in Valentine, Neb, Edward Peterson, 59 years old, a hopeless victim of tuberculosis, collapsed in South Sioux City yesterday and was picked up by Chief of Police Mathwig. Peterson was placed on a train bound for Valentine. He told Chief Mathwig that he had come from Clinton, Ia, where his condition became so hopeless that he decided to return home to die. Two men and a young woman had a close brush with death at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, when a fast traveling touring car hit a rut in the South Sioux City approach to the combination bridge, tipped over and rolled through a fence. John Ryan, of Jackson, Neb, owner of the automobile, his daughter, Margaret Ryan,

FOR COUNTY CLERK.

The undersigned hereby announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for the office of county clerk of Dakota county, subject to the will of the voters at the primary election August 18, 1914.

Very respectfully,
GEORGE WILKINS.

an, 18 years old, and William Lyster, of Jackson, occupants of the machine, were thrown clear of the wreck and tossed into the ditch. Ryan was severely shaken up by the accident and Miss Ryan was bruised. Lyster escaped harm altogether. Injuries of none of the party were serious enough to require the services of a physician. A bridge tender on the Nebraska side of the bridge saw the accident. He stated that the Ryan machine and another motor car were racing up the approach to the trestle when the mishap took place. Ryan, who was operating the car, did not notice an abrupt elevation in the road until the car struck it. None of the occupants had time to jump. As the machine swerved, however, they were tossed out and thrown over the fence. They alighted on the dumping grounds below as the machine crashed through the fence and rolled on its side. The motor car was hoisted out of the ditch and towed to the garage, where repairs were made. Both fenders were broken off, the steering wheel was gone, and one wheel was twisted.

Our ball team won a hard earned victory Sunday over the Jackson team on the latter's grounds. The game went fifteen innings, the score being 6 to 3 in our favor. Baird and Hartnett were the battery for Hubbard and Frye and Marsh for Jackson. Considerable money changed hands on the result of the game.

Our institutions of learning and the great profession of education in this state must come to suffer at the hands of factional strife and jealous quarrel. I am absolutely opposed to ring rule of every kind and character in Nebraska school affairs, and am unqualifiedly committed to a fair and impartial consideration of the claims of every educational interest in the state, and upon this high plane, I shall administer the office, if nominated and elected.

Your most serious consideration is invited, and your support is solicited by the undersigned, who covets the honor of serving the people of Nebraska in this great office.

Whitehead For Superintendent.

Mr. Whitehead secured his elementary education in a rural school, and his higher educational training at Eureka College, Illinois, at the State Normal School, Peru, Nebraska, and at the University of Nebraska. His teaching experience covers twenty-three years, first in the rural schools of Clay and Adams counties, Nebraska, then as principal at Creston in Platte county and at Elgin in Antelope county, and for the past ten years has had charge of the schools of this city.

Mr. Whitehead has an ambition to serve Nebraska as the head of her educational system, and his views on educational matters are rightly a matter of public interest. He believes that the three greatest factors in successful life are character, health, and the ability to earn a living. More boys are ruined by too much money than too little. The best guarantee that a boy will go to college is that he be prepared for college. Gothenburg had 27 of its Alumni in colleges and universities during the past year.

Born and reared and having taught in the country he knows the great problems of rural life. He believes that to stem the tide of the movement of our country youth to the city, we need the rural high school, and to this end he believes in state aid for rural high schools. He believes that a part of our inheritance Tax should have been devoted to rural school betterment. He favors a law dedicating to education the immense revenue ultimately to be derived by the state from the control of its water power.

Mr. Whitehead wears no man's collar and if elected the people will have at the head of their schools a fearless champion of all that is best in education. In recognition of his experience and judgment, Governor Morrish has placed him on a commission for the revision of the school law.

Mr. Whitehead's nomination would place on the Democratic ticket a man from the west half of the state and a strong candidate for this high office.—Gothenburg Times.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT

P. M. WHITEHEAD,

Gothenburg, Neb.
Democrat and People's Independent.

Fellow Citizens:

Do you realize that today, 11,000 instructors, nearly 400,000 children and youth, and a yearly expenditure for education of over $8,000,000 summon you to choose a candidate for state superintendent?

I offer for the service of the state an educational training gained at Eureka College, Illinois, at the Peru Normal, and at the University of Nebraska. I offer twenty years experience as a teacher, including three years in rural schools, service in a Junior State Normal, and ten years as city superintendent at Gothenburg. I am at present a member of the School Law Revision Commission.

My training in school, my experience as an educator, and the observations of twenty-three years, give me the following settled convictions:

That all the children of all the people, are entitled to an equal amount of equally good training.

That this can be secured without any loss to those who now enjoy the best advantages.

That the humblest teacher in the most remote district is entitled to equal consideration with the highest skilled educator in the state.

That absolute merit is the only proper basis for the employment and promotion of teachers.

That the offices of state and county superintendent should be taken entirely out of politics.

That the constitution should be amended, forever prohibiting the sale of another acre of our public school land.

Never before in the history of Nebraska, was there greater opportunity for real constructive service, than is offered today in the administration of the department of education.

Our institutions of learning and the great profession of education in this state must come to suffer at the hands of factional strife and jealous quarrel. I am absolutely opposed to ring rule of every kind and character in Nebraska school affairs, and am unqualifiedly committed to a fair and impartial consideration of the claims of every educational interest in the state, and upon this high plane, I shall administer the office, if nominated and elected.

Your most serious consideration is invited, and your support is solicited by the undersigned, who covets the honor of serving the people of Nebraska in this great office.
